

WELCOME to Paradise

Rachel Kamalakis

Assistant Manager, Pooler

We're excited to welcome Rachel Kamalakis, a proud Savannah, GA native, to Pet Paradise. With a passion for animals and a background filled with lots of love and belly rubs, she looks forward to advocating for furry friends and connecting with the community. Outside of work, she enjoys caring for exotic plants, hiking, and aquarium keeping. At home, she's the proud mom of Raven and Memow. Fun fact —just like our furry friends, she can even lick her nose! Welcome to Paradise, Rachel!
